Hello It's Cath!

Welcome aboard, dear guests!

This month, we find ourselves immersed in the topic of happiness, thinking about what brings joy into our lives. As the General Manager of Santan, my days are busy, but I've learned that happiness often comes from small moments and experiences we create for you.

At Santan, we see you as special valued guests, not just passengers, and making AirAsia guests happy is one of my greatest joys. We work hard to make sure every part of your flight exceeds your expectations, leaving you with fond memories. As our lovely cabin crew serves you, picture us in a cozy home setting, entertaining personal guests with heartfelt attention into every detail of your inflight experience.

F&B innovation is another realm where I find immense joy. We pour our hearts into crafting each meal, thinking of them as cherished moments shared with loved ones. From delightful treats to the finest coffee, every element is carefully curated to elevate your inflight dining experience to new heights. In a world where airline food is often criticized, our meals are highly sought after, with value and choice in mind, which prompted us to open a ground restaurant chain!

Ah, coffee—the elixir of life. My passion for this aromatic beverage has taken me on a journey across the globe in search of the perfect cup. At Santan, we've put in every effort to craft premium-grade coffee that promises to tantalize your taste buds with every sip. The introduction of Santan coffee capsules made through freeze-dried technology and our partnership with ZUS Coffee signify our commitment to offering you the best in-flight coffee experience and always at great value prices.

Skincare is not just a routine or a ritual, it's a moment of self-indulgence that rejuvenates the soul, and as a skincare enthusiast, curating a diverse array of beauty products for our guests has also brought me immense joy. Each item featured in our magazine undergoes rigorous testing by a team of 30 dedicated individuals to ensure that only the finest products grace our shelves, enhancing your pampering experience mile-high, at the best possible prices.

Yet, perhaps the greatest source of satisfaction lies in our efforts to elevate ASEAN's local brands onto the global stage. Championing talent and supporting homegrown businesses through initiatives like 'The Next Big Thing' truly fills my heart. I believe that every brand, no matter its size, deserves recognition if its products are outstanding. We are enthusiastic about fostering even more partnerships. If your products bear the mark of 'Buatan Malaysia,' we eagerly await the opportunity to collaborate and amplify your impact.

As I pen down these thoughts, I can't help but feel a sense of gratitude for the journey we're embarking on together. To all our guests, I extend my heartfelt thanks for your unwavering support. Rest assured, we're committed to continually enhancing your flying experience, ensuring that each moment spent with us leaves you with a smile.

May your journey with us be filled with moments of joy, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

With love,

Catherine
